Sociology on a World Scale?

[The PSA 2010 theme “Revitalizing the Sociological Imagination” is timely & it meets up with the debates now occurring around the world. The hegemony of a European/US Canon has been challenged by the recognition of multiple sociologies & social theory from the global periphery. We can now see the possibility of a re-configured post-colonial world sociology. But what will it look like in detail? How can different knowledge systems articulate? How will we practice a post-colonial world sociology? What is the role of sociologists in the sociological superpower, the USA? In this session, three active researchers who have experience both in the USA & in the global periphery open a discussion on these themes.]

organizer: Karen Sternheimer, USC

presider: Edson Rodriguez, USC

[Communication scholar Sut Jhally applies Erving Goffman's groundbreaking analysis of advertising to the contemporary commercial landscape in this provocative new film about gender as a ritualized cultural performance. Uncovering a remarkable pattern of gender-specific poses, Jhally explores Goffman's central claim that the way the body is displayed in advertising communicates normative ideas about masculinity & femininity. The film looks beyond advertising as a medium that simply sells products & beyond analyses of gender that focus on biological difference or issues of surface objectification & beauty, taking us into the two-tiered terrain of identity & power relations. With its sustained focus on the fundamental importance of gender, power, & how our perceptions of what it means to be a man or a woman get reproduced & reinforced on the level of culture in our everyday lives, The Codes of Gender is certain to inspire discussion & debate across a range of disciplines.] Produced by: Media Education Foundation

204) Video Session: Tulia Texas

presiders: Cassandra Herrman & Kelly Whalen, producers

[Though its scrupulous investigation of a landmark case, this documentary uncovers the deep-rooted assumptions about race & crime that still permeate our society & undermines our justice system. The film convincingly shows how the "war on drugs" has become a war on due process waged against African Americans. California Newsreel]
